For PRAs who are included in the final list issued by the RP, and who have not submitted a plan by the last date as specified by the RP, the deposit shall be refunded within 2 weeks of the claim for refund made by such person.

For a PRA whose plan has been rejected by the CoC and who does not intend to improve upon or modify such rejected plan, the deposit shall be refunded within 2 weeks of claim for refund made by such person. A PRA who has made a claim for refund of the deposit shall automatically forfeit any right to continue to be a part of the resolution process in any manner whatsoever, unless permitted by the RP/CoC subject to applicable provisions of the IBC 2016.

D. Eligibility Criteria for Prospective Resolution Applicants

The eligibility criteria for PRAs, as approved by the CoC in accordance with Section 25(2)(h) of the Code is as follows:

1. Constitution, Category and Structure

- (a) A PRA may be any individual (resident of India, foreign national, non-resident Indian or a person of Indian origin, as defined under Foreign Exchange Management Act, 1999 and any related amendments thereto), trust, co-operative society, private limited company, public limited company, LLP, sole proprietary firm or a partnership firm, or a combination of any of the foregoing, whether registered in India or outside India, which is eligible to invest in India under the laws of India.
- (b) A PRA, in case of joint bids, may be a consortium, a joint venture (existing or proposed), a Special Purpose Vehicle (existing or proposed) or any other combination allowed under the laws of India. The proposed shareholding in the Corporate Debtor by the PRA may be held in its own name (in case of proposal by a single person or entity), or one or more members of the joint bid or their associate entities however, the lead member of consortium or JV, either by itself or through its associates, shall hold at least 26% of the equity shares of the Corporate Debtor. If the shareholding is proposed to be held by such associate entities, the details of entities and their consent to subscribe to such shareholding will need to be enclosed with the EOI.
- (c) In the event the PRA is a Consortium, it should fulfil the following requirements:
 - (i) The consortium would be required to have a lead consortium member identified upfront which shall be the entity with the single largest equity participation in the consortium with authority to bind, represent and take decisions on behalf of the Consortium.
 - (ii) In the event the consortium is made up of body corporates, the net worth of the consortium shall be calculated as the weighted average of the net worth of the individual members (value of any negative parameter shall be considered as nil). Provided that only such portion of their net worth as is proportionate to their shareholding in the consortium will be considered towards the qualification criteria under the EOI.
 - (iii) In the event the consortium is made up of FIs the minimum AUM of consortium shall be calculated as weighted average of individual member's AUM or committed funds available for investment/deployment in Indian companies. Provided that only such portion of their AUM/committed funds as is proportionate to their shareholding in the consortium will be considered towards the qualification criteria under the EOI.

- (iv) In the event the consortium is made up of a mix of strategic investors & financial investors viz. comprising body corporates, FIs/funds/private equity investors/non-banking financial institutions/any such other applicants, the qualifying criteria shall be testified as follows – either the SI members should meet the eligibility criteria applicable to SIs based on their weighted share within the SI category or the FI members should meet the eligibility criteria applicable to FIs based on their weighted share within the FI category.
- (v) In the event the lead consortium member is not in a position to enlist the other consortium members, then the lead consortium member shall be considered to be the sole PRA for the purpose of determining eligibility under the EOI.
- (vi) Any SI/FI can participate in only 1 (one) consortium or can submit only 1 (one) EOI.
- (vii) All the members of the consortium shall be jointly and severally responsible for legal compliance and compliance with the terms of the invitation for EOI, the RFP and the Resolution Plan.
- (viii) RP & CoC reserve the right to request further information for the purpose of determining eligibility and qualification of PRAs at any stage.
- (ix) Any entity which has been barred or blacklisted or put under any prohibition or restraint of a similar nature by the Central Government, a State Government, or any entity controlled by any such Government as on the date of submission of the EOI, would not be eligible to submit the EOI, either individually or as member of a Consortium and if any such restraint or prohibition is imposed after the submission of the EOI, then such PRA shall be disqualified.

2. Technical Criteria

- (a) A prospective resolution applicant, directly or through an affiliate / group company, should preferably have experience in a business line similar to that of GPL.
- (b) In case where the prospective resolution applicant does not have experience in a similar business line, he will need to demonstrate, to the satisfaction of the CoC, the capability to acquire and / or hire or otherwise obtain the required skill sets and domain knowledge.

3. Financial Criteria

(a) In case of Individuals or Firms or Body Corporates:

Minimum Tangible Net Worth (“TNW”) of INR 500 Crore (Rupees Five Hundred Crore) as of 31st March, 2022 based on the latest consolidated audited financial statements of the entity and as certified by statutory auditors / Chartered Accountant as the case may be.

Tangible Net Worth shall be as defined under Sec 2(57) of the Companies’ Act, 2013 which as on date reads as under:

“net worth” means the aggregate value of the paid-up share capital and all reserves created out of the profits, securities premium account and debit or credit balance of profit and loss account], after deducting the aggregate value of the accumulated losses, deferred expenditure and miscellaneous expenditure not written off, as per the audited balance sheet, but does not include reserves created out of revaluation of assets, write-back of depreciation and amalgamation

(b) In case of Financial Entities:

- (i) Minimum Asset Under Management (“AUM”) of INR 2000 Crores (Rupees _Two Thousand Crores) as of 31st March 2022; or
- (ii) Committed funds available for investment/deployment in Indian companies or Indian assets of INR 1000 Crores or more as of 31st March, 2022.

Financial Entities would include Banks, Financial Institutions, Private Equity Funds, Venture Capital Funds, Investment Funds, Non-banking Finance Companies, Asset Reconstruction Companies, Foreign Investment Institutions etc

4. Calculation of Financial Criteria in cases of Prospective Resolution Applicants forming Consortium / Joint Ventures

- (a) In case the consortium is of Body Corporates, or Body Corporates and Individuals / Firms, Tangible Net Worth of consortium shall be calculated as weighted average of individual member’s TNW (value of negative TNW members shall be considered as NIL) based on their proposed shareholding in the consortium.
- (b) In case the consortium is of FIs/Funds/PE Investors/NBFCs/Any other applicants, the minimum AUM of consortium shall be calculated as weighted average of individual member’s AUM or Committed Funds available for investment/deployment in Indian companies.
- (c) In case the consortium is of body Corporates/FIs/Funds/PE Investors/NBFCs/any other applicants, the qualification criteria for NW/AUM/Committed Funds would be in proportion to their shareholding in the consortium. All the consortium members should satisfy the criteria independently.
- (d) No change in lead member or any member whose financials have been used to meet the criteria set out herein shall be permitted after the last date for submission of EOIs.
- (e) In the event the consortium is made up of a mix comprising body corporates, FIs / funds / private equity investors / non-banking financial institutions / any other applicants, the eligibility criteria applicable to the lead member shall be considered
- (f) Any prospective resolution applicant can participate in only 1 (one) Consortium and / or can submit only 1 (one) EOI.
- (g) Neither, the prospective resolution applicant including any consortium member, group company, affiliate, chief executive officer, any of the directors / manager / key managerial personnel of the interested party or their affiliate should have been convicted by a court of law or indicted nor any adverse orders should have been passed by a regulatory authority which could cast a doubt on the ability of the prospective resolution applicant to undertake the transaction or which relates to a grave offence that outrages the moral sense of the community in regard to matters, as may be determined in accordance with applicable law.

5. Disqualification Criteria

Without prejudice, a prospective resolution applicant may be disqualified and its EOI or Resolution Plan may be excluded from further consideration for non-compliance with the terms hereof or for any of the reasons listed below. Where the prospective resolution applicant is a consortium, none of the members should be subject to disqualification under the terms of this document. The disqualification criteria shall include:

- (a) Ineligibility in terms of Section 29A of the Code;

- (b) Material misrepresentation in the EOI or the proposal or failure to provide the information required to be provided in accordance with the terms of the detailed invitation or request for resolution plans;
- (c) The RP/CoC are of the view that the prospective resolution applicant has not satisfied the eligibility criteria approved by the CoC. Without prejudice to the generality of the above, the criteria may include among others, the track record (financial, operational strength, turnaround experience or otherwise) of the interested party, its financial strength, etc;
- (d) Any information regarding the prospective resolution applicant which becomes known to the RP or the CoC which, in the sole opinion of the CoC, is detrimental to the proposed transaction and / or to the interests of the Corporate Debtor and its stakeholders.

E. Submission of EOI

Any interested prospective resolution applicant who is eligible in accordance with the eligibility criteria as specified by the CoC, may submit EOI in the format as set out in Annexure A on or before 29-01-2023 (18:00 Hrs IST).
